It's happening...

[Announcer]: It's happening...you can feel it.

[Woman]: "Arnold is the poster child for the American Dream and that's inspiring. That's inspiring to everybody."

[Announcer]: An extraordinary man at one with the people.

A governor for the people for a change. In this historic election we can send a message to those in power, that the ultimate power still rests in the hands of the people.
